

Mrs. Gordon's 6th Grade Required Reading List 2019-2020

- Students will be required to read books on the 6th grade required reading list this year.
- They will be required to read the chapters assigned each week for each book.
- Students will turn in a one page summary of what they read for the week on each due date (Tuesdays).
- Students will also read non-fiction articles assigned for each section and answer questions that go with each book. Teacher will provide articles in class.
- Books can be rented from the school for a nonrefundable $10 rental fee for the whole school year. Students can also purchase books on their own and/or check the books out from their local library.
- Quarterly Projects: At the end of each quarter, students will be required to represent a complete book they read during the quarter by one of the following assignments:
 - Poster with oral presentation
 - Diorama with written explanation or oral presentation
 - One page summary with illustrations
 - 8 stanza (or more) poetic summary
 - Model representation of a scene from the book, with written explanation or oral presentation
