

Rights of Homeless Students

The school shall provide an educational environment that treats all students with dignity and respect. Every homeless student shall have access to the same free and appropriate educational opportunities as students who are not homeless. Students will not be stigmatized or segregated on the basis of their status of homeless. The commitment to the educational rights of homeless children, youth and unaccompanied youth, applies to all services and programs, and activities provided are made available to homeless students.

A student may be considered eligible for services as a “Homeless Child or Youth” under the McKinney – Vento Homeless Assistance Act if he or she is presently living:

- In a shelter, temporary shared housing, or transitional living program
- In a motel/hotel, campground, or similar situation due to lack of alternatives
- At a bus station, park, car, or abandoned building
- In a temporary or transitional foster care placement

According to the McKinney-Vento Homeless Act, eligible students have rights to:

- Immediate enrollment: Documentation and immunization records cannot serve as a barrier to the enrollment in school.

School selection: McKinney-Vento eligible students have a right to select from the following schools:

- The school he/she attended when permanently housed (school of origin)
- The school in which he/she was last enrolled (school of origin)
- The school in attendance area in which the student currently resides (school of residency)

Remain enrolled in his/her selected school for the duration of the homelessness, or until academic year upon which they are permanently housed.

Participate in programs for which they are eligible, and which the CGCS has available on campus, including Title I and other federal and state programs.

Transportation services: A McKinney-Vento eligible students attending his/her school of origin has a right to transportation to and from the school of origin.

Dispute resolution: If you disagree with school officials about enrollment, transportation, or fair treatment of a homeless child, youth, you may file a complaint with the school district. The school district must respond and attempt to resolve it quickly. During the dispute, the student must be immediately enrolled in the school and provided transportation until the matter is resolved. The homeless liaison will assist you in making decisions, providing notice of any appeal process and filling out dispute forms.
